VOL. IV. NO. 271.

CHICAGO, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

O'CONNELL DEFEATS IMP.

Monday afternoon was clear and cold at Lakeside, but the going was heavy and the racing comparatively tame. The defeat of Imp by O'Connell was the chief racing piece. Next to it was the failure and fall of Molo, a heavily backed favorite.

Imp and O'Connell met in the third event, a handicap at three-quarters of a mile. Naturally Imp was favorite, but considering her burden and the weight she was conceding to O'Connell—who, by the way, is at his best just now—her price was altogether too short. She went to the post at 3 to 5, O'Connell being held at 4 to 1 to win and 3 to 5 for the place. The race was always between the pair. Imp broke a half a length in front, but O'Connell nailed her before she had gone twenty yards, and passing the half mile ground he had his head in front. Imp had all her speed, but so had O'Connell. The pair raced like a team to the bend for home. Here the weight began to tell on Imp, and the black whirlwind faltered a trifle. Nickle, feeling the filly tiring under him, went to the whip; but this was of no use, for O'Connell was simply galloping, and won with Dean looking back, laughing at those behind him. Imp got the place and Timemaker, who came with a rush at the end, was a good third.

The Molo accident happened directly in front of the stand in the second race. Bloss had the mount on the colt and squeezed through a small gap at the head of the stretch. At this point Hardly was in front and Sheppard, who rode her, seeing Molo coming up fast on the rail immediately shut him off. This caused Bloss to pull up, but he did not attempt to go around Hardly and stayed close to the fence evidently thinking that Sheppard might let him through. At the sixteenth post the going was very bad and Molo, stepping in a hole, fell heavily and all in a heap. The horse with Bloss holding tight to his head to keep him from getting up slid fully twenty feet. By this time the boy had freed his feet from the stirrup and let go of Molo's head. The horse at once rose to his feet but Bloss was not able to rise and it looked for an instant as though he was seriously hurt. Such was not the case, however, for when the mud was washed out of his eyes and mouth the doctor examined him and found no bones broken.

The boy had a narrow escape and only keen presence of mind kept him from being seriously hurt. He said when the horse fell that he tried to get his feet out of the stirrups but the right one stuck and as this was the side the horse fell on he was naturally pinned down. Had Molo in one of his plunges to get up rolled over the chances are that he would have crushed Bloss to death. By holding his head down until assistance came Bloss perhaps saved his own life.

Hardly won the race off by herself and Graziella, hard driven, beat Patroon for the place.

Thirteen maiden two-year-olds made up the field for the first race which was at five and one-half furlongs. The betting was 4 to 1 and taking a pick, bar Bright Night, who was held at 3 to 1. Sam Lazarus Esq., who has been getting away poorly in a majority of his local races, managed to get a flying start and, quick as a flash, he opened up a big gap. He led at the half by eight lengths and at the three-quarters by ten lengths, but rounding into the stretch he began to tire and at the eighth post was only five lengths to the good and tired enough to rest. Freeman nursed the colt nicely and coaxed him into staying long enough to win. He just staggered under the wire a length and a half in front of Pnidias. The latter was three-quarters of a length better off than Hop-

It looked very hard to pick the winner of the fourth race and the ring, on account of Burns, made Glenmoyne the favorite. His price varied from 2 to 1 to 3 to 1 and there was quite a play on him. The old rogue ran well for half a mile, but went all to pieces at the end and finished far back. The winner turned up in Locust Blossom. She was a 4 to 1 chance and nicely ridden by Hothersall. The boy was always in a nice position and when Canace gave it up he went to the front, winning well in hand by three-quarters of a length.

A "good thing" turned up in the fifth race. It was a three-quarter dash for two-year-olds and Mr. Johnson was the favorite at 6 to 5, but it seemed only the public and those that follow Master Burns, wanted to bet on him. All the wise and heavy money went on Evelyn Byrd. The filly opened at 2 to 1, but under steady play was cut to 2 to 1. She proved to be honey in the comb. Getting off second the filly soon went to the front and virtually won all the way. Burns came through on the rail with Mr. Johnson and had plenty of room. Still, the wily Tommy claimed a foul. When he went into the stand Judge Clarke looked at him and in a laughing way, remarked: "Yes, Tommy, it is a shame the way you are treated." This stopped Burns and he did not finish his play.

The last race was won by Double Dummy, who showed himself to be a rare stayer. Down the back stretch he was far back and did not seem to have a possible chance, but he picked up his horses, one by one, and eventually won with a bit to spare by a half length. After the race J. E. Rodegar run Double Dummy up $200 over his entered price. In turn, Frank Frisbie, owner of Double Dummy, claimed Bishop Reed for $670. This was the second horse that Rodegar lost during the day. His filly, Her Favor, was claimed out of the fourth race for $590.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

J. H. McAvoy has shipped his big string by express to New Orleans in order to have plenty of time to prepare his charges for the opening day. In the lot were Hardy Pardee, Priace Dudley, Yuba Dam, Cob, White Oak and others. McAvoy will campaign the entire lot at New Orleans until the meeting ends next March.

M. J., Chicago.—A person claiming a horse out of a selling race must pay the sum for which the horse was entered to be sold, and in addition thereto the value of the stake or purse. J. F. V., Milwaukee, Wis.—Most of the horses that ran on the Maryland outland tracks last winter are now at the Carnegie track, near Pittsburgh. Possibly he may be there.

Winner—B. f, by Falsetto—Flora McDonald. Post 5 minutes. Start good. First two driving. Pansy H. seemed to be winning at the sixteen-teenth but Everett on Lady Roller finished like a demon and lifted his mount home a winner by a nose in the last stride. Miss Patron showed improvement. Georgie could not untrack herself. Nan Dora ran an improved race. Crinkle stopped badly after going three-eighths of a mile. Scratched—Capitolia, 100; Hi Las-le, 100; Lecelia, 112; Fannie Taylor, 112; Mayme M. M., 112. Lady Roller, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Pansy H., place, 24 to 1; show, 6 to 5.

Vanessa was run off her feet in the first half mile. Stockholm closed strong. They were tiring for Jamboree, and the distance was too short for him. Scratched—Motilla, 97; Capitola, 100; Maggie S., 100; Can I See 'Em, 100; Annie M., 100. Overweights—Vanessa, 3 pounds. Agitator, place, 1 to 2. Stockholm, show, 7 to 10.

Winner—B. c, by Donald A—Du Du. Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden and out to the last ounce; second and third were driving to the limit. Sam Lazarus, Esq. was fortunate in getting away. Freeman broke running and was never headed. The colt was stopping badly at the end and almost fell twenty yards from the wire. Phidias ran a good, game race. So did Hopkins' Choice. The latter was practically left and the boy was pulling up. With an equal break he would have been a keen contender. Bloss was badly shut off shortly after the start. Bright Night ran a bad race and Rosie Burke a good one. Sam Lazarus, Esq., place, 24 to 1; show, even. Phidias, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Hopkins' Choice, show, 4 to 1.

Winner—Ch. f, by Candlemas—Perthaps. Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily after an early drive; second and third driving hard. Hardly ran a good race. She had the speed of the party and liked the going. A lot of luck aided her. Molo started through on the rail at the head of the stretch and was cut off. Had he got through he would have beaten Hardly. Sheppard pulled over and sharply cut Molo off. It was too late for Bloss to pull out and go around and he took the chance that Hardly would bear out. The colt got tangled up and fell at the sixteenth post. The fall was a nasty looking one, but the boy escaped with a shaking up. Graziella stopped and came again. Patroon's race was a good one. Branch looked dangerous at the head of the stretch but tired badly. Don Orsino could not untrack himself in the going. Scratched—Lucid, 107; Muskadine, 102; Inuendo, 102; Guilder, 99; Marzella, 99. Overweights—Long Suit, 2 pounds.
